The Wall Street Journal's list ranks nationwide sales of hardcover books during the week ended last Saturday at more than 2,500 Barnes & Noble, B. Dalton, Bookland, Borders-Milton, Books & Co., Bookstar, Bookstop, Borders, Brentano's, Cokes, Copley-Smith, Crown, Doubleday, Scribner's, Super Crown and Waldenbooks.com and Amazon.com. A sales index of 100 is equivalent to the median number of copies of the No. 1 fiction best-selling titles sold each week during 1999. *The business sales index is adjusted to reflect median sales of 1999's No. 1 fiction bestseller, calculated using sales only from these bookstores (Barnes & Noble, Books-a-Million, Crown, Amazon.com and Barnesandnoble.com) that contribute to the business bestsellers list. (P) Periodic (H) Hardcover. A dash (-) indicates a book not new to the list, but whose sales did not register on the index for the previous week.
